SUBJECT: Calendar Year 2011 (CY 11) Enlisted Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Active Service Management Board (ASMB) Guidance

4. The zone of consideration includes all enlisted AGR Soldiers who reached 18 or more years of active service as of 31 December 2010.

5. Eligibility for consideration by an ARNG AGR ASMB.

a. Soldiers eligible for consideration.

(1) AGR Soldiers who have 18 or more years of active service as of 31 December 2010.

(2) Mobilized AGR Soldiers ordered to active duty under 10 USC 12302 who have 18 or more years of active service as of 31 December 2010.

(3) Soldiers who are within one year of completing their mandatory Active Duty Service Obligation (ADSO) incurred due to service school completion as of the board convene date.

b. Soldiers not eligible for consideration.

(1) AGR Soldiers with an approved retirement date or retention control point NLT 30 June 2012. Approved retirements or retention control point will not be cancelled or extended after the board is convened.

(2) AGR Soldiers on initial 3-year AGR tours. If initial tour end dates are between 1 January and 31 December of the announced board year, the AGR Soldier will not be boarded. The AGR Soldier may be boarded in the first calendar year following the conclusion of the initial 3-year tour.

(3) Soldiers who will reach age 60 within 18 months after the date the ARNG AGR ASMB board is scheduled to convene.

(4) Soldiers who have completed less than 12 months of an Active Duty Service Obligation (ADSO) incurred due to school completion as of the convene date of the board.

(5) All nominative Command Sergeants Major serving in the AGR Program are exempt from the ASMB process. This exemption applies to Division Command Sergeants Major and those CSMs serving at the convenience of the Chief National Guard Bureau, Director Army National Guard, Adjutant General and the Assistant Adjutant General.
